

Landed NZ Pathways

Joining a Landed study pathway gives you the chance to live, study and work in New Zealand. It opens up new life and career opportunities for you, and also for your family if you wish to go together.

Establish Your Future Life

RESIDENCY PATHWAY
Achieve 5 out of 6 points for long-term residency

ENHANCE KEY SKILLS
Build your professional skills in leadership & management

COMMUNICATION
Improve your language level while you study

FAMILY MATTERS
Your partner also receives a full visa while you study; children get free school placements

NETWORK
Form an international community of friends and colleagues

Prepare Your Career

4x

increase your earning power

the average salary for a manager in Auckland, New Zealand is $5,200 per month, compared to $1,200 in Manila of international students who stay in New Zealand continue to have employment 5 years after studying

87%

Sources: Glassdoor; Universities New Zealand

Flexible Study and Work Options

12

months

total time to complete your Master's degree

complete your studies onsite in Auckland, with a vibrant international community and job market

20-40

hours

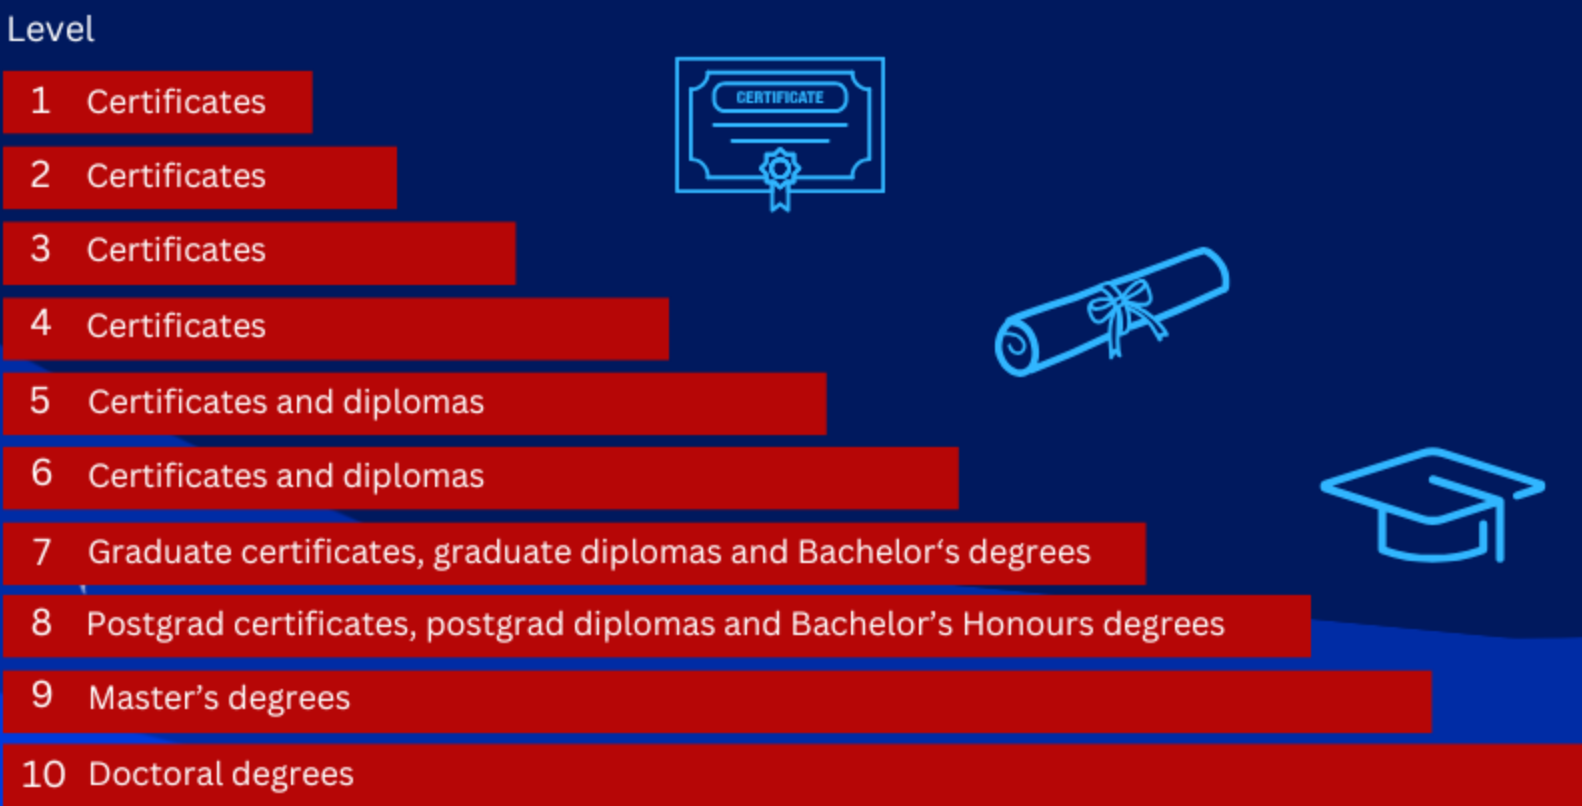

working hours per week allowed while on a student visa

3

years

post-study work visa once you complete your Master's

New Zealand Qualification Levels

Skilled Migrant Residency

6

points

required to start an application for the long-term skilled migrant category residency visa

3-6

points

are given for qualifications above Bachelor's degree (above level 7)

1-3

points

are given for each year of skilled work completed in New Zealand

GET INVOLVED

1

Join one of our upcoming webinars to find out more about the programs we offer

2

Contact our team for a free consultation to explore your options in more detail